INTRODUCTION

THE FIRST SESSION OF THE 56TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE OFFICIALLY CONVENED FEBRUARY 6TH.

When session began, there were 13 new senators, 32 new representatives, one open seat, 2,410 new pieces of legislation to consider and, unfortunately, the same old challenge - a third consecutive fiscal year with no new revenue and another multimillion dollar budget shortfall.

By the end of session, May 26th, legislators sent 410 bills or resolutions to the governor's desk. Governor Mary Fallin signed 393 and vetoed 17. Fortunately, a few of those signed included business-friendly bills designed to strengthen the economy and create jobs. Positive business growth and job creation are essential to Oklahoma's future.

The "Oklahoma Energy Jobs Act", referred to as the long laterals bill, authorizes the Oklahoma Corporation Commission to expand well spacing units for horizontal oil and natural gas wells to 1,280 acres. Oklahoma is currently the only state restricting long lateral drilling by geologic formations. The Oklahoma Tax Commission indicated the expanded drilling opportunity would result in approximately $19 million in new state revenue for FY-18, create 5,900 jobs and allow Oklahoma to compete nationwide for capital investments from the oil and natural gas industries.

Another success for job creation and expanded economic development was extension of the aerospace tax credits until 2026. The credits have created over 4,200 jobs with an average salary of $80,000 since being enacted in 2009.

The legislature reinstated the "Oklahoma Tourism Development Act of 2000" which establishes the framework for the Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation Department to offer incentives to companies creating or expanding tourism in Oklahoma. The legislation was previously utilized in the development of the 21C Hotel in downtown Oklahoma City and should provide helpful incentives for future redevelopment throughout the state.

Implementation of "Real ID" legislation, HB 1845, easily passed both chambers and was immediately signed by the governor. The measure establishes a federally compliant Oklahoma driver's license necessary for entering federally owned properties and for boarding commercial aircraft.

Two separate bills create the "Oklahoma Public and Private Facilities and Infrastructure Act" and provide the framework needed for a government entity to contract with a private partner to finance, maintain and improve infrastructure projects. The ability to combine resources expands the opportunity to improve infrastructure at the local and state levels.

Disappointments included four separate bills that would have provided changes to the workers' compensation codes needed to overcome changes made by previous court rulings. Each of the measures made their way to conference committees but were not moved forward for final votes.

RIED reviewed and tracked over 700 bills this session—the largest number ever. Information regarding RIED's position on the legislation was forwarded to legislative members throughout the session. We also responded to numerous requests for research on individual bills and shared our positions by providing updates to RIED members and followers.

By the conclusion of session, 14 bills were utilized to create the 2017 RIED Report. Each of the bills passed both legislative chambers and all were signed by Governor Fallin. Eleven members of the Senate and 12 members of the House earned perfect scores of 100, and 94 members had passing scores of 70% or higher. RIED's positive impact since its inception is clearly illustrated by the fact that legislative advocacy for business, job creation and economic growth has improved from 32% in 1998 to over 60% in 2017.

I was especially pleased with the support of the new legislative members who took strong positions in support of business and economic growth. If we are to continue to grow Oklahoma, create the jobs needed to improve the economy and provide the support needed for business expansion, business interests and job creation must stay at the forefront of the legislative dialogue.

We appreciate your continued interest and support for the Research Institute for Economic Development and look forward to the next legislative session.

Susan Winchester

PRESIDENT, RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Research Institute for Economic Development is to promote economic growth through the evaluation of business, job and economic growth issues considered by the Oklahoma Legislature.

WHO BELONGS AND WHO GOVERNS

A board of directors elected by the overall membership governs the Institute. Any business, partnership, corporation, association or individual whose application for membership is approved by the Board may become a member upon payment of dues. Members are eligible to serve as officers and participate on committees.

RESEARCH

Institute research creates a profile of each legislator's individual voting record for bills dealing with business, industry, job creation and economic growth issues deemed important by the private sector. All legislation introduced during the session regarding issues listed below is evaluated. Each legislator is graded with respect to his or her position on each bill.

A wide range of reports, graphic illustrations and voting profiles are disseminated across the state based upon each legislator's voting record.

RIED IS NON-PARTISAN. WE DO NOT LOBBY ISSUES, ENDORSE CANDIDATES OR CAMPAIGNS.

BILL SCORING AND EVALUATION

BILL SELECTION

Proposed legislation relating to business, job creation, elevation of income or economic growth can be nominated for evaluation.

Nominations come from business interests, chambers of commerce, trade organizations, professional societies, academic interests, individuals and members of the legislature.

WEIGHTING

Bills are weighed on a scale from five to twenty with the most important legislation from this session receiving the highest weight. RIED staff reviews each bill and assigns an initial score. A private sector focus group comprised of RIED board members and representatives in the fields related to the proposed legislation follows the bill through the legislative process and issues a final recommendation. A committee made up of RIED board members or their designee meets to evaluate the bills being considered as well as to approve the bills used for final scoring.

BILL LIST

Legislators receive the current RIED bill list:

- After the first committee deadline date
- After the deadline to hear bills in their chamber of origin
- After the second committee deadline date
- After the deadline to hear bills in the opposite chamber
- Periodic updates are sent as bills are signed out of the conference committees (daily if necessary)

CALCULATION OF MEMBER VOTES

Approximately 20 of the most significant business related bills are used in calculating the final scores.

- Unless otherwise noted, legislative votes used for final scoring are the votes cast on final reading in both legislative chambers
- Member scores are determined by dividing individual points by the maximum number of points available
- Points are not deducted for absences. Absences do, however, represent a lost opportunity to score points. Co-authorship of a bill will be considered as voting in favor of the legislation.

BUDGET DEBATE IMPACTS BUSINESS LEGISLATION

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, JUNE 23, 2017—

The Research Institute for Economic Development (RIED), a non-partisan organization and producer of the annual RIED Report, a grading system of Oklahoma legislators' votes on key economic development and business issues, announced today that 11 members of the state Senate and 12 members of the House of Representatives scored a perfect 100 on the 2017 RIED Report. The scores were awarded to lawmakers who served during the first session of the 56th Oklahoma Legislature that began February 6th and adjourned May 26th.

Four freshmen, Julie Daniels (SD 29), Tom Dugger (SD 21), Lonnie Paxton (SD 23) and Adam Pugh (SD 41), are among Senate members receiving perfect scores. Others are President Pro Tempore Mike Schulz (SD 15), Stephanie Bice (SD 22), AJ Griffin (SD 20), Ron Sharp (SD 17), Wayne Shaw (SD 3), Gary Stanislawski (SD 35) and Roger Thompson (SD 8).

Four freshmen, Rhonda Baker (HD 60), Avery Frix (HD 13), Dell Kerbs (HD 26) and Kevin West (HD 54) are among House members receiving perfect scores. Others are House Speaker Charles McCall (HD 22), Josh Cockroft (HD 27), Elise Hall (HD 100), Randy McDaniel (HD 83), Casey Murdock (HD 61), Glen Mulready (HD 68), Terry O'Donnell (HD 23) and Steve Vaughan (HD 37).

Under the RIED evaluation system, legislators earn positive points when they support job creation and economic development issues. Points are deducted when they introduce or vote for legislation that negatively impacts Oklahoma's business climate. A score of 70 and above represents a passing grade while 69 and below represents a failing grade.

"Facing a $900 million shortfall, lawmakers filed a broad range of proposals intended to fill the revenue gap including measures to broaden the tax base and to eliminate several tax credits and other proven business incentives," said Susan Winchester,

RIED president. "Fortunately, most of these measures did not move forward. I was especially proud of our new legislators who took a strong stance in opposition to these bills. Positive business growth and job creation are critical to the future of Oklahoma."

Three House seats (HD 28, HD 75, HD 76) and two Senate seats (SD 44, SD 45) were vacant for all or a portion of the 2017 legislative session. Despite this unusual occurrence, 99 legislative members received passing scores of 70 or higher including 31 Senate members (85%) and 68 House members (72%). Overall, 75% of the total legislative membership scored 70 or higher.

"Stimulating Oklahoma's economy through pro-growth, sound business policy should always be a primary goal of the legislature," said Greg Love, RIED board chairman.

"Unfortunately, the past three years of budget deficits have shed light on not only the need for continued growth and diversification of Oklahoma's economy, but also the manner and mechanism for how to appropriate tax dollars. We must collectively devise a more efficient way to operate and fund state government. The legislature has to be willing to endorse and support a pro-business agenda. Our global economy demands it, and in the ultra-competitive marketplace, a small state like Oklahoma absolutely needs to stand out. I urge members of the Senate and House to focus their attention on advancing our economy. The next generation is depending on it."
